

Supervisor Safety

If you supervise one or one thousand - the responsibility is the same. The safety of those who work for you is your responsibility.

How do you show your support for safety?

Are you training your people enough and appropriately?

Are you asking for safety specific feedback and input?

What would your workers say if asked, "How does your supervisor indicate that your safety is of primary importance?"

Safety is NOT a program - it's a Value!